Turn Around And Look

Nothing seems to go my way Everywhere I turn people stare and I can't believe the things they say I am warm still feeling kind of cold and these days I can see myself growing old

Who want's to be my saviour
Who's gonna tell me 'bout the things I've done
Who's gonna be there when I wake up I turn around and look for you and suddenly you're gone

Nothing seems to go my way
It's not easy going nowhere when you're not going anyway
I only need a friend I end up getting none and these days I can feel my heart is going numb

Who want's to be my saviour
Who's gonna tell me 'bout the things I've done
Who's gonna be there when I wake up
I turn around and look for you and suddenly you're
gone
