Time is of the essence that I feel, it's what we've always heard
I can feel your presence stalking like these words

Even in the dark and lonely night
In the stillness of the air the raven flies - the raven flies Cannot escape your ghost no matter how hard I try Hides around every corner then vanishes like a lie

Even in the dark and lonely night
In the stillness of the air the raven flies Whispers are insane and they're creeping in my head
Can you hear, can you hear, what I'm being said

Even in the dark and lonely night
In the stillness of the air the raven flies, the raven flies, the raven flies
