[Verse 1:]

You could read a million pages, know the words and all the phrases.

You could try to turn a lie into the truth.

And you can live to be a hundred, memorizin' every number.

You could even put a man on the moon.

And the science of the heart is sometimes lost on me.

But I'm following this feeling!

[Chorus:]

I don't know why, it's so hard to swallow our pride!

And I don't know how many wrongs make a right.

I don't know the reason.

Sometimes it just feels so, good to cry!

And I don't know which way the wind will blow.

But You're here with me.

And that's All I Need To Know!

[Verse 2:]

There's a moment in the morning, when I feel the most alone

But then I hear Your voice, whispering my name.

It's like a wave of understanding and I never could of planned it

When the questions, and doubts all fade away.

[Chorus]

I figured it out, You turned me around at the speed of light.

All that I ever needed to know was in your eyes.

[Ending/Chorus:]

I don't know why, it's so hard to swallow our pride.

And I'll never count all the stars in the sky.

I don't know the reason.

Sometimes it just feels so, good to cry!

And I don't know which way the wind will blow.

But you're here with me.

And that's All I Need To Know!

That's all I need to know!

That's all I need to know.
All I need to know!
