Hi

Don't you know that every song starts with an intro
Quiet 'til the middle, then picks up and moves on
Don't you know that every song starts with an intro
Quiet 'til the middle, then picks up and moves on

And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on, yeah, yeah, yeah

Make sure your guitars are loud, loud enough to move the crowd
And feedback is essential
So that my voice is smooth and clean like
The channel on your amp before you scream
Words like, 'Yeah, let's rock n' roll'

And it goes one Mississippi, two Mississippi
Three Mississippi, four
And it goes one Mississippi, two Mississippi
Three Mississippi, four

And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on, yeah, yeah, yeah

Let's rock n' roll, let's rock n' roll
Let's rock n' roll and it goes
Let's jump around, let's jump around
Let's jump around and it goes

Let's rock n' roll, let's rock n' roll
Let's rock n' roll and it goes
Let's jump around, let's jump around
Let's jump around and it goes

And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on
And it goes on and on and on and on

And it goes on, yeah, yeah, yeah

C?mon
