I'm not the same as yesterday
Ooh, It's hard to explain how things have changed
But I'm not the same as before

And I know there's so much more ahead
I can barely believe that I'm here
And I won't surrender quietly, step up and watch me go

Break down, you really want it?
Wanna make a scene? Show me what you mean
Let's get it started, let me see whatcha got

Can you take it up a notch? Don't think you got it
Can't handle the pressure? Get off, stop talkin' about it
Gotta make this count, let's go

When we move we camouflage ourselves
We stand in the shadows waiting
We live for this and nothing more
We are what You created

I can feel the storm, the winds have changed
Ooh, 'cause we're worlds apart but just the same
But we won't leave the way that we came

I know there's so much more ahead
I can barely believe that we're here
We won't surrender quietly, step up and watch it go
Break down, you really want it?
Wanna make a scene? Show me what you mean
Let's get it started, let me see whatcha got

Can you take it up a notch? Don't think you got it
Can't handle the pressure? Get off, stop talkin' about it
Gotta make this count, let's go

When we move we camouflage ourselves
We stand in the shadows waiting
We live for this and nothing more
We are what You created

Are you ready? Are you ready?

Are you ready for me?
Are you ready? Are you ready?
Are you ready to see?

When we move we camouflage ourselves
We stand in the shadows waiting
We live for this and nothing more
We are what You created

When we move we camouflage ourselves
We stand in the shadows waiting
We live for this and nothing more
We are what You created

When we move we camouflage ourselves
We stand in the shadows waiting
We live for this and nothing more
We are what You created
