This world has taken me by storm
It makes me feel like running
This place is making me transform
Until I feel like nothing

It's the strength in you and me
That surrounds everything
The way you look out for me
The way you burn

It's the flame, in all of us the same
That makes us feel
This flame, in all of us the same
That makes us feel this

We're the youth of yesterday
We've brought you pain and sorrow
That's what they say but they paved the way
We're the new tomorrow

It's the strength in you and me
That surrounds everything
The way you look out for me
The way you burn

It's the flame, in all of us the same
That makes us feel
This flame, in all of us the same
That makes us

It's the flame, in all of us the same
That makes us feel
This flame, in all of us the same
That makes us feel

It's the flame in all of us
That makes the change in all of us
That takes the blame in all of us
And still keeps it alive

It's the flame in all of us
That makes the change in all of us

That takes the blame in all of us
And it still keeps it alive
