Let the sable blood of the idol show the false and strong evidence Passion reigned a thousand years, the cries of rejoice and lost innocence
All refrain join in the pain ahead
Can't relax or find the flax you said You'll see - You'll see Show me truth and desecrate it, hold be back, temptation burning Strength and your dexterity, the deftly slip of painful learning
Covered nail and hypnotic baleful
I never had my pale skin Tighter hold her throw her away
All but wisely chosen stay Let the congealed blood of the idol sizzle through and corrode this bridle Holds me in and blinds my eyes, but I live to serve, to be despised
All turn in and join chagrin ahead
Can't behold the words of old they said
You'll see - You'll see
