She's everything to everyone
Wish I could have seen it come down but I heard incorrectly
It seems everything she knows is now five minutes to closing
That's not a lot of time when you're nervous

And they say daughter, look away, don't be afraid
When you want to turn back a million times
And it might get colder but wait 'til it's over Darling, you'll find your way

But she said I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
And all this pain I've held inside so I can find my way home again

I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
Don't wanna be perfect, just alright

He's on his way to nowhere 'cause he heard it was safe there
And safe is something valuable here
He's spent half his life searching and the other half working Hard to find out if Jesus is real

And they say son, look away, don't be afraid
When you want to turn back a million times
And it might get colder but wait 'til it's over
Son, you'll find your way

But he said I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
And all this pain I've held inside so I can find my way
home again

I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
Don't wanna be perfect, just alright

And every time, every line
Every time you wanna say goodbye, sing
Every time, every line
Every time you wanna say goodbye, sing

I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
And all this pain I've held inside so I can find my way
home again

I will not look away this time
Take all these cuts and make them shine
Don't want to be perfect, just alright

She's everything to everyone
Wish I could have seen it come down but I heard
incorrectly
It seems everything she knows is now five minutes to closing
That's not a lot of time when you're nervous
