It feels like a dream, how did things all get so crazy?
I'm remembering before when I felt so clean Alone in my room, it feels like the walls are closing in I'm thinking of you 'cause I know what'll happen soon

I'm spinning out of control
Not knowing which way to go
Feelin' left out in the cold

I just wanna let go of it all and climb up over the wall
I need some help to get back on my feet
If you're out there cover me

You thought you could come and take it all without hurting me
That was your biggest mistake
Should have known when you saw me break Alone in my room I sit and pray that the walls stop closin' in
And every breathe I take's a step further away from the end of me

I'm spinning out of control
Not knowing which way to go

I just wanna let go of it all and climb up over the wall
I need some help to get back on my feet
If you're out there cover me

I wanna get this off my mind
There's no one else I can tell
Please, please listen to me, come listen to me

In a world where confusion is only an illusion
And fear itself is just another weak minded solution
In this generation with too much information
Instead of bonding together we bring anger to the nation

My faith is the only thing I've got
And no one can take that from me

No one will take that
Yes, no one can take that from me

I'm spinning out of control
Not knowing which way to go

I just wanna let go of it all and climb up over the wall
I need some help to get back on my feet
If you're out there cover me

I just wanna let go of it all and climb up over the wall
I need some help to get back on my feet
If you're out there cover me
