Pick up the phone, nobody's home
I'm all alone, we've all been here before
Yesterday I saw a change, another way
As you walked out the door

It's a twist, a little bit, I'll admit
But we're stronger than before
Open up, we've had enough, we've had enough
And now we're holding on and waiting

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

We all try to be somebody
But the world around us makes it so cloudy
When we don't trust where we're supposed to
But the blood on the hands says we're not close to the answer, yeah

But maybe if we pull together we can change
A million lives for the better
And maybe if we prayed a little more
We will stop living in fear from the storm and everyone sings

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying
Tell you what they're all saying

Every part is you, every part is me
Raise your hands and sing, tell them we can be
Show them who you are, show them you can see
Raise your hands and sing, tell them we are free

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying

Every part is you, every part is me
Raise your hands and sing, tell them we can be
Show them who you are, show them you can see
Raise your hands and sing, tell them we are free

What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
What do we know? What do we know?
I'll tell you what they're all saying
