We sat upon your bed
You said the things you said
And I could not believe
That you seem so naive

We exchanged our poetry
You seem to think a lot like me
I guess I'll just assume
That we could talk about most anything

Then I asked have you ever felt abandoned?
Felt so lost that you were stranded
Just like all the walls are closing in
And you were left inside

Have you ever felt like your days were numbered?
Stuck under a tree in thunder
Seems to be no way out
But there is one when in doubt

Ready for another day
Slowly watch ya waste away
Havin' fun, bein' cool
Like we did in high school

Elementary romance
Feelin' nervous at the dance
Crack a smile hold it down
Whatever the circumstance

Sex, drugs, Haddad be cool
All the things we learned in school
Typical teenage machines
Anyone tell me what this means?

I could learn, I could try
Never really had an alibi
Wish I did, that's no lie
Everybody's asking

Why?
When you feel like you can't fly

You gotta know I got the answer for you baby
Drives you crazy, it's not over
Theres so much more to life then this

Why?
When you feel like you can't fly
You gotta know I got the answer for you baby
Drives you crazy it's not over
Theres so much more to life then this

Things seem so hallucinating
In the corners of my mind they scare me
I know ya never meant to desert me
Just like you never really meant to hurt me

Then I ask have you ever felt abandoned?
Felt so lost that you were stranded
Just like all the walls are closing in
And you were left inside

Have you ever felt like your days were numbered?
Stuck under a tree in thunder
Seems to be no way out
But there is one when in doubt

And you ask why?
When you feel like you can't fly
You gotta know I got the answer for you baby
Drives you crazy, it's not over
Theres so much more to life then this

Why?
When you feel like you can't fly
You gotta know I got the answer for you baby
Drives you crazy it's not over
Theres so much more to life then this

So much more to life than this
