i'm seein' red don't think you'll have to see my face again don't have much time for sympathy cuz it never happened to me you're feeling blue now i think you bit off more than you could chew and now it's time to make a choice you know all i wanna hear is your

so follow the leader down yes swallow your pride and drown
maybe that's when you will know

maybe that's when you will know and foolish lies oh cant you see i try to compromise cuz what you say i know is true and i can see the tears in your eyes and what you said now just like the words from running through my head and what i do to get through to you but you'd only do it again

maybe that's when you will know

maybe that's when you will know

ohhh-oh yeah

Ooohhhh I confess

i dont know what to make from all this mess dont have much time for sympathy but it never happened to me you're feeling down now i dont know where i'll be when you come around
and now it's time to make a choice and all i want to hear is your voice
