Maybe I am not the one you had in mind
Maybe I'm not the one that you thought was your type Maybe I'm not the one that you've been dreaming of Maybe I'm not the one you thought would bring you love

But maybe I'm just what you need
And maybe I

You tell me I think too much
You say that I dream too much
And tell me I feel too much
Yeah maybe I do

You say that I say too much
You tell me I believe too much
And maybe I hope too much
Maybe you do too

I don't need to be the one to change your life
I don't need to be the one you call your wife
And I don't need to be the one that you run to
And I don't need to be everything to you

But maybe I'm just what you need
And maybe I

You tell me I think too much
You say that I dream too much
And tell me I feel too much
Yeah maybe I do

You say that I say too much
You tell me I believe too much
And maybe I hope too much
Maybe you do too

Well all I know is what I see

In you and me
All I know is what I see
And I know you were made for me

You tell me I think too much
You say that I dream too much
And tell me I feel too much
Yeah maybe I do

You say that I say too much
You tell me I believe too much
And maybe I hope too much
Maybe you do too

You tell me I think too much
You say that I dream too much
You tell me I assume too much
Yeah maybe I do

You say that I say too much
You tell me I believe too much
And maybe I hope too much Maybe you do too Maybe you do too
