I embrace this pitiful race,
Reaching out to a world of disgrace
I'm willing to sacrifice,
Implosion of emotion never reaching prime

Burning inside the mind,
All these thoughts must unwind
Stirring close to the edge,
Never reaching the end

I'm falling down,
Forever in spite over you
Save me as I fall,
As I destruct

It's not to late,
To design and reveal a notion
It's not to late,
To indulge and find a solution

My silence,
Won't heal the damage inside me
Fallen from grace,
I refuse to die with the answers

Time to go,
Into the void, to the unknown
Time to go,
Today will mark evolution

When all is lost,
I'll never end
Striving to live again
