The face of the deceitful ones,
Lies in the veins held inside
Slowly bleeding, impeding our lives,
Until war has begun

Now it's time to display our aggression,
Now it's time to explode

Now we build up a wall of retention,
Now we hold our own

Seething all these words unsaid,
It's time to believe what's right
Open your eyes

They are the ones, the degradation
Cheat, deceive and lie
Contrive the end of us all,
Retribution is now, vengeance is now

They are the one's,
The degradation
Your time is now
