If you knew just how I feel
Then you'd know my love is real
If you knew just what I do
Then you'd know my love is true

My love is growing stronger
I really can't wait much longer
I wanna know if you're gonna
Lay around, let me down

If you knew just how I feel
Then you'd know my love, love, love, love, love is real
If you knew just what I do
Then you'd know my love is true

If there's a way to prove it
I can't even budge or move it
I don't want to really lose it
Don't you know I won't let go

If you knew just how I feel
Then you'd know my love is real

My love is real
My love is real
My love is real
My love is real
My love is real
