

Three Dog Night "That No One Ever Hurt This Bad"

Visit "That No One Ever Hurt This Bad" on MotoLyrics.com

THAT NO ONE EVER HURT THIS BAD

By: R. Newman

From the Album: Three Dog Night "One"

Released: 1968-Track 8

Look out my window, watch the rain.

I hear it beating on my windowpane

But it hurts me so bad,

Bet no one ever hurt this bad.

My baby left me all alone,

Waitin' for a letter sittin' by the telephone

But it hurts me so bad,

Bet no one ever hurt this bad.

Since you went away,

Cannot face the day

And night brings nothin' but pain.

Even I was wrong feelin' that I can't go on,

Baby please come home

Can't stand being alone.

Somebody somewhere, hear my plea,

And send my baby back home to me

But it hurts me so bad

Bet no one ever hurt this bad.

Since you went away,

Cannot face the day

And night brings nothin' but pain.

Even I was wrong feelin' that I can't go on,

Baby please come home

Can't stand being alone.

Somebody somewhere, hear my plea,

And send my baby back home to me

But it hurts me so bad

Bet no one ever hurt this bad.

But it hurts me so bad

Bet no one ever hurt this bad.

Visit Three Dog Night page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.

