[Cage]

I started getting juicy when I saw what it does Nevermind my tunnel vision and skin crawling with bugs
My pores start to hyperventilate, hypes of my mental state
Go psychedelic out of my skeleton to celebrate
This hell is great, rapidly tweeking to corpse with me
Then stumble the bundle, into the freezer like Walt Disney
Drain the liquid from me then stick my earths tummy
When I'm reborn you can't take shit from me

[Chorux x2]

Because they..
Because they..
Because they get to shine all night long..

[Tame One]

Unusual part of a funeral marks the musical dark Moodkiller got full peaked bodybags of leak with smells reaking through zippers
Morticians perscription striff, soaking peoples tuxidos to the bone
There's no place like a funeral home..
My newports get mummified corpses dripping from horror
This is like diarrhea after the rigor mortis
Both lungs is sponges, with fluid like oil changing the Buick
Drowning but you still hearing that background music
I've seen you with the girl from The Ring
Raise hell at new well, fuck who you call
Sprinkle black magic like Voodoo dolls
Night of the living leak heads, dipping pot and cooking pot
I'm running off of Chris Thomas's watch
You can mourn the gone but what pump through my arms in the mourage
I can afford to purchase more and then smoke and then record

[Chorus x2]

Because they..

Because they..

Because they get to shine all night long..

[Cage]

My girlfriend walked in on me hacking my arm up

From my wrist to my pex, needless to say she's my ex

With no excuse for my behaviour, the razor's my acting agent

You say it's a cry for help, I say it's more like practice, ain't it?

All of my heroes been dead since I was two-zero

Instead of be in the fam my shrine's a mirror of meds

Cigarette sizzeling, smoking till my flesh wear diligence

Like long range missiles into Iraqi villages

Shotguns are the most succesable tickets to Haitis, kids

Rather be dead than the guy who raps about how great he is

One last fuck, cigarette and sipp on my lager

Then I'm gonna burn in hell with Kurt, BIG and my father

[Chorus x2]

Because they..

Because they..

Because they get to shine all night long..
