Youre my Mr. Perfect,
And Im your little wrong,
You showed me the stars,
But then the clouds rolled on,

I tried to be right,
And I tried to be yours,
But your infatuation was too big,
There were signs,
And there were closed doors,
You showed me the bridge from my heart to yours

Youre my Mr. Perfect,
And Im your little wrong,
You showed me the stars,
But then the clouds rolled on,

There are no tears to be shed,
But many words to be spoken,
I could scream your name,
And no one would come running,
Youve darkened my soul,
And youve brightened my eyes,
I dont see how Ive made it with these mistreatments and lies

Youre my Mr. Perfect,
And Im your little wrong,
You showed me the stars,
But then the clouds rolled on
