everything is so crazy, when i just want you to hold me baby, i didnt want to get set up, and i didnt want it all to get messed up, i want you bad and i want you for good, but maybe i am just not in it for me, and only for you,

chorus:
you touched me and i felt the pain,
and you told me so,
but i though i was sure,
yet its not for good and its not for bad,

verse:
i could try,
and i could cry,
but i wanna smile, and remember us, but not now and i dont know when, if only i could see you to see what the future may hold, but maybe i'm just being to bold, chorus: you touched me and i felt the pain,

and you told me so,
but i thought i was sure,
yet its not for good and its not for bad
