I wish I could take the chance to say,
That everything will be ok,
And maybe today,
Ill find what Im looking for,
In this world of unending treasures,
And this world of unending people with the wrong matters,

I want to feel the feel and know its real,
Just to know Ive closed the deal,
With everyone that ever mattered to what I am,
Just to know this is my time,
With a simple sign

And I remember when he smiled,
But that was miles ago,
And now Im running away,
Into a new face,
And into a new place,
But I dont need my space,
Only within where everythings wrong,
But its only a song; nothing is so comfortable than the past,
But it could not have last

I wanna feel the feel and know its real,
Just to know Ive closed the deal,
With everyone that ever mattered to what I am,
Just to know this is my time,
with a simple sign
