I wanna sing to you my... sweet melody,
I wanna sing to you my... sweet melody,
Sing it with me now... I wanna sing my sweet melody to you,
Break it down now,
Im not the girl you used to know,
All I wanna do now is practice my flow,
Say what? You missed the show,
Tell me now,
What do you see?
Is it everything you wish to be?
you say you want to be like me, but you aint my sugar in my tea,
I sweat the bet to realize he,
Wait hes with a she!
Oh no, watch out,
You better run,
Im on your ass with my gun,
No harsh times,
Just trying to make good rhymes,
Im the cute lil blonde next door,
Boom, were on the floor,
Rollin around, touching the ground,
Wait, whats this Ive found?
Uh, yeah, Ill take another round,
Some more of this sweet lovin,
While were laying here huggin,
Listenen to this sweet, sweet melody,
Wait! Did you scream hold me,
As you stole me,
But your too bold, see?
Sittin here, bored out of my mind,
Hoping that soon Ill find,
But this girl is just too blind,
I wanna sing to you my... sweet melody,
I wanna sing to you my...sweet melody,
Let me sing my sweet melody...to you
Step back now,
Its all good,
Plus I never actually stood,
On top,

Flip, flop with a little hop,
Dancing now to every beat,
Just cant seem to control the heat,
Partying every night,
But I just cant find the light,
With my lil green eyes,
And those sweet little lies,
Ill want to lay down and cry,
You hurt me cuz you just dont see,
What I wish to be,
Ya know you and me,
Its becoming a big dream,
But I see the scheme,
I wish that damn Elmers glue could help,
But nothing sticks together,
When you wish it was forever,
Trixie is my special name,
But trust me you dont know the game,
Sittin here wishing for my fame,
But its all gettin oh so lame,
I wanna sing to you my... sweet melody,
I wanna sing to you my... sweet melody,
Let me sing to you my... sweet melody (slowing down)
were all about my... sweet melody,
Everyone knows its about the... sweet melody,
Cuz were all about the... sweet melody
