I want to touch you without a reason
You never take me unless I try
Our lie is over before it's begun
You know we both would die, it's suicide

[chorus]

Now i know i've been walking down the wrong road
But I will survive
I'm slowly fading away from the only place
I survive this all

Another step in the wrong direction

Another taken too far, decide
How much longer can you fight temptation?
Is it enough to try, enough to take sides?

[chorus]

I can take away your pain
Slowly open your eyes one last time
Can you show me how you make
The things in your life hold on
For nothing at all

[chorus variant]
