can we go on can we be strong we've got a system you're going to use it we call it freedom and you are free to choose it if you're not against it you've got to be for it neutral is dangerous and you cannot ignore it can we go on forcing our hand can we be strong till others understand can we go on to save our wounded land can we be wrong

we've got the money we're going to spend it peace is our mission we'll murder to defend it sooner or later you'll get the picture we're the creator and you were just created devastation is where we're heading if we follow this illusion escalation of all the hurting that is borne of our confusion unrelenting as we persist in putting everyone beneath us never ending until we understand our honesty deceives us

there is still one truth on which we can depend we've started something we can never end we know although we try to justify the means the truth behind the end remains unseen and while we all assume we all agree we're giving up the freedom to be free disillusion is always possible but we've got propaganda mass confusion is always better than the threat of understanding we'll deceive you we've got so many ways to make you stand behind us if we need to we'll use them on ourselves to constantly remind us

there is just one lie that we can still defend we've started something we can never end

we've started something we can never end
