five miles tall
and everything is small everything is small
five miles down
you see your patch of ground it's not so bad at all

breathe in, out
and don't stop breathing

chorus:
cuz this, this is your life
this is your world
and everything that you've been trusted with it's small in your eyes but great is your worth and you can do this right this is your life

five miles high
don't want to leave the sky everything's so clear
five miles on
when clarity is gone
just make it reappear

breathe in, out

breathe in, out

chorus 2x
