You disappeared with all your good intentions
And all I have is all that I can't mention
Like who will bring me flowers when it's over
And who will give me comfort when it's cold

She took her place somewhere out in space
To start a life and maybe change the world
You see I never meant for you to have to crawl
No I never meant to let you go at all

Oh no
Oh no
Don't ever say goodbye

My head aches from all this thinking
It feels like a ship, and God knows I'm sinking

Wonder what you do and where it is you stay
These questions like a whirl wind
They carry me away

And I said who will bring me flowers when it's over
And who will give me comfort when it's cold
And who will I belong to when the day just won't give in
And who will tell me how it ends or how it all began

Oh no
Oh no
Don't ever say goodbye

And I'm only human
I said I'm only human
I said I'm only human
I said I'm only human
I'm human, I'm human
