He said I grew up in Wichita
In a Mayberry kinda town
He never liked overalls
Or hauling hay til sundown
He said he dreamed about L.A.
As he plowed away the day
On an old John Deere
I said boy let me warn ya
In southern California
There's some fast trains there

Chorus
You're not in Kansas anymore
Can't be too careful that's for sure
City lights will lead you on
Morning comes and they'll be gone
So write my number on your wall
Call me anytime at all
I'm so happy now boy
You're not in Kansas anymore

He said do you know where Carson lives
So we drove up to Malibu
Cruising down sunset strip
Oh, I let him steal a kiss or two
Under the Hollywood sign
I tried to hide a smile
As I whispered low
I wanna be the first to tell ya
Here we say rodeo not rodeo

Repeat Chorus
