oh this is what we need a line in the sand I would cross to here before the tide comes in and you should be less rude you don't know what it might do for you I'd be less rude to you we might just get along, too you sit on your high horse and you spout your high horse shite I'm afraid you've been misled your high horse is in fact a pony oh you should be less rude

you don't know what it might do for you I'd be less rude to you

I'll take that back now take that back you should take that back, back, back oh and you should be less rude

you don't know what it might do for you I'd be less rude to you
we might just get along, too
