Forever Ends Today

Her tears were cold as winter. Understand the true meaning
when you slaughter angels. A kiss that burns forever.
The letter that ended a voice is broken with lies in a soul I now despise Forever ends. Forever ends. Forever ends.
Forever ends. Whisper soft, look into my eyes, black roses rain from blood filled skies
Whisper soft, her eyes stained with cries, black roses flood as this dies Her heart tastes sweet like rain, Forever ends. Her heart tastes sweet like rain, her tears froze to her face. Her last breath, her last breath drifts away.
