Hyperballad - twilight singers (cover of a bjork song)

We live on a mountainâ€”Right at the topâ€”There's a beautiful viewâ€”From the top of the mountainâ€” Every morning I walk towards the edgeâ€”And throw little things offâ€”Like:â€”Car parts, bottles and cutleryâ€”Or whatever I find lying aroundâ€”
It's become a habitâ€”A wayâ€”To start the dayâ€”
I go through all this
Before you wake up
So I can feel happier
To be safe up here with you

It's early morning
No one is awake
I'm back at my cliff
Still throwing things off
I listen to the sounds they make
On their way down
I follow with my eyes 'til they crash
Imagine what my body would sound like
Slamming against those rocks

When it lands
Will my eyes
Be closed or open?

I go through all this
Before you wake up
So I can feel happier
To be safe up here with you
