Rock steady, baby, your man iz ded
Be careful, sugar, of who you call a friend
'cause they'll get you in the end

Step eazy, baby, and don't you cry
She had another brother on the side
You could not let it slide

And if, my love, i said i'm sorry
Would you believe me?
Should i cry?
Then hold me, az i die

And the ones who live
Are the ones who fly
And the ones who crawl
Come crawlin' by and by
On back to you again

But i ain't ever gonna see you again
And i'm never gonna feel you again
So let this moment never end
