"Hellbent"

I've stood by too many goddamn times, turned a blind eye
I let it pass
But never again, never again
An example will be set
And you will pay your debt to me in blood

Blood for blood...
I'm taking you down
Blood for blood...
Prepare yourself

There's not a law in the fucking land that will keep me from putting things right with you Hellbent on war
Now we're well past words and threats and everything in between No more restraint, just pure hostility Confrontation, intimidation, vindication, I'll have my way They say an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, but...
A code of violence and vengeance is written in blood

Blood for blood...
I'm taking you down
Blood for blood...
Prepare yourself... for war
