I cant just look away
Cus the hate is burned into my mind
I cant feel anything
Cus the hate has left me dead inside
Theres a fine fucking line between love and hate
That we cross at least once every goddamn day
And while youre saying that you love me you still push me away
You tie me at the wrists so that you cant be saved
You cant save you
You never wanted me to
Cant save you now
I cant just look away
Cus the hate is burned into my mind
I cant feel anything
Cus the hate has left me dead inside
Theres a fine fucking line between love and hate
That ive drawn, that youve crossed and now you cant be saved
If all you wanted was to die then i wont stop you today
Cus i know your game
I know youll never change
Cant save you
You never wanted me to
Cant save you now
Weve tried so many times
And id try for you again but ive drawn the line
Youve lied to many goddamn times
And id save you life again but youve crossed the line and died
You crossed the line
But youll never fucking cross me now cus i wont fucking save you
You never wanted me to and i played the role for too long
No i wont save your hopeless life
Fuck no
No one can fucking save you
