I don't need a reason
I don't need to explain
I'm told that death's in season
I don't need to be saved

But you... you tried so fucking hard
Can't seem to cauterize your scars
And stop your pride from bleeding
Coiling, the Ouroboros rise
The vicious cycle of our lives eternally repeating

Somewhere between love and failure
There's a hole in the sky
You and I might not live forever
But our words never die

I don't need a reason
I don't need to explain
I know it's dyin' season
I don't need to be saved

But you... you fought so fucking hard
Rationalized your butchered heart
To keep the fire burning
Coiling, the Ouroboros rise
The vicious cycle of our lives eternally returning

Somewhere between love and sorrow
There's an ocean of lies
You and I may not see tomorrow
But our words never die

You... you tried so fucking hard.
Can't seem to cauterize your scars
And stop your pride from bleeding
Coiling, the Ouroboros rise
The vicious cycle of our lives eternally repeating

Somewhere between love and failure
There's a crow in the sky
You and I might not live forever
But our words never die

We never die
