We need a fucking plague
A flood, a war to kill it all to cure it all Cause every corner turned the scum of the earth
Fuck the gangs of middleclass suburbia
The gutter punks
Their prozac medicated parents too strung out to give a shit

Where did we go wrong?
How in the hell did it come to this?
You're pissin in the wind if you think it can be fixed because I'll tell you what we really need...

Deliverance
Go to your gods, beg for Deliverance from the scum of the earth

Let the locust swarm, allow the jaws of earth to swallow us alive
Baptize me in the blood of scum for rebirth

If I see another pedophile priest released A hipster glam rock wannabe, a cop shooting an unarmed teen
I'll carve my eyes out with a stick

Where did we go wrong?
How in the hell did it come to this?
You're pissin in the wind if you think it can be fixed because I'll tell you what we fucking need...

Deliverance
Go to your gods plea for
Deliverance
And in your prayers beg for Deliverance
Our only chance is Deliverance
from the scum of the earth

Deliverance... deliver us from the scum of the earth
