Undone and unraveling at the seams,
My soul numb and half the man you saw in me
I speak in tongues
but sing your praises till I cave my lungs
No one could ever stop me

I sew my eyes unto the passing of a bitter life
I try with all I am to break the choke of suicide
I sew my eyes unto the passing of a bitter life
I try with all I have to bide my time till I'm...

Reborn, I return
Cause I can't breathe without you...
Reborn, I return
...with this blood inside my lungs I found you
Reborn, I return
I can't see a Goddamn thing without you...
Reborn, I return

...through this venom in my eyes
but I'm coming home

Black sun has risen again today
My soul burns to ashes unbecoming me
All I am, a skeleton of what I used to be
You see me undone, the snake uncoiling

I sew my eyes unto the passing of a bitter life
I try with all I have to bide my time till I'm,

Reborn, I return
Cause I can't breathe without you...
Reborn, I return
...my iron lung, I died then found you
Reborn, I return
I can't see a Goddamn thing without you...
Reborn, I return
...through this venom in my eyes
but I'm coming home
