I'm the lady
Who locks the door
I'm the lady
Who turns out the light

Hey you, look at the dirty water
Look at him
Look at the dirty water and swim

I'm not looking for anything
And you don't know
I'm not digging for anything but this hole

Hey you, look at the dirty water
Look at him
Look at the dirty water and swim

Sit at your hole
You can't afford to go
Catch what you can
You can't afford to know this man
Hey you, aren't you the lady?

Some man, you look fine
Don't touch me
There's history on your hands

Hey you, aren't I the lady?
Look at the dirty water
Look at the dirty water
