Kissing through the weekend
We can prove we're perfect
On a mattress made of wasted time
A safe hotel room is a catacomb
Nobody cheats after dark
Lost flamingoes lost their bark

I can see myself and
I'm eating out of your hand
On a carpet made of everything

A safe hotel room is a catacomb
Nobody sees you in the dark
Lost flamingoes lost their bark

I'm still waiting, I'm still here
Is that how come you're so mad?
I want all you never had

Your nose is broken
But your mouth is working
There's a rainbow on the bathroom wall

A safe hotel room is a catacomb
Nobody loses in the dark
Lost flamingoes lost their bark

I'm still waiting, I'm still here
Is that how come you're so mad?
I want all you never had
