Hard work is killing me, I ainÂ't got no time for a family IÂ'm running under stress, on a road to madness,

Running destroys my health (what are you running after?) Running destroys my wealth (what are you running after?) Running destroys my life (so why are you running after it?)

I wake up at 7 in the morning, I go to bed at 1 am at night

Everyday is the same routine, every night is the same night

Running destroys my health (what are you running after?)

Running destroys my wealth (what are you running after?) Running destroys my life (so why are you running after it?)

ItÂ's not alright, itÂ's not alright,

Running destroys my health (what are you running after?) Running destroys my wealth (what are you running after?) Running destroys my life (so why are you running after it?)
