She was burning up with that white line fever
She said "Tie me up", but I couldn't get near her She was walking that fine line, stumbling all over the edge
Shaking like a leaf as high as a kite
I tried to leave but she didn't want to say goodnight

The girl's going out of her head, she's going crazy
Girl's going out of her head, she don't want to stop

She said, "Life's a bitch living in the fast lane
But my daddy's rich so I shouldn't complain Ooh, I've got money if you want it, so much I can throw it away
Then she held a gun right up to my head
I could have run but I didn't want to taste the lead

The girl's going out of her head, she's going crazy
Girl's going out of her head, she don't want to stop
She's going crazy

Ooh, she was walking that fine line, stumbling all over the edge
Shaking like a leaf as high as a kite
I tried to leave but she, but she, she didn't want to say goodnight

The girl's going out of her head, woh, she's going crazy
Girl's going out of her head, she don't want to stop

The girl's going out of her head, she's going crazy
Ooh, is going out of her head, she don't want to stop

Hmm, I said the girl's going out of her head, the girl's going out of her head
The girl's going out of her head, the girl's going out of her head
Yeah, she's going crazy, yeah, yeah, oh yeah, oh
