Feelin' like it's all over, feelin' like there's no love

Feelin' like it's not easy, breathin' life in the dust

On a countdown to zero take a ride on the nightmare machine

There ain't gonna be heroes, there ain't gonna be anything

Here it comes, here comes the night

Here it comes, hell in the night

Here it comes, here comes the night

When we all fall down

When we walk into silence, when we shadow the sun

When we surrender to violence, then the damage is done

Put away that gun

I don't wanna be there, I don't wanna be anywhere

Here it comes, here comes the night

Here it comes, hell in the night

Here it comes, here comes the night

That's right

We're fightin' for the gods of war but what the hell we fightin' for

We're fightin' with the gods of war but I'm a rebel

And I ain't gonna fight no more, no way

On a countdown to zero, take a ride on the nightmare machine

There ain't gonna be heroes, there ain't gonna be anything

Here it comes, here comes the night

Here it comes, hell in the night

Here it comes, here comes the night

Don't ya know that's right

We're fightin' for the gods of war but what the hell we fightin' for

We're fightin' with the gods of war

And I ain't gonna fight no more

Stop fightin' for the gods of war

Yeah what the hell we fightin' for

What in the hell we fightin' for

We're fightin' with the gods of war

Heavy
