What can I hear? Who can I see?

What's this I fear that's followin' me?

It's getting louder, it's coming near

I can not stand it, I'm gettin' outta here

You'd better beware now

You'd better take care now

The street of the sinner

So you'll never be a winner

The rain is falling around my feet

The night is calling on this well-lit street

People in doorways just stand and stare

Castaway shadows that really aren't there

You'd better beware now

You'd better take care now

The street of the sinner

So you'll never be a winner

What can I hear? Who can I see?

What's this I fear that's followin' me?

It's getting louder, it's coming near

I can not stand it, I'm getting outta here

You'd better beware now

Yeah you'd better take care now

The street of the sinner

So you'll never be a winner

You'll never be a winner

On heat street
