Living by the law is a bloody necessary bore

Everybody are you gettin' what you're lookin' for

Livin' by the rule is somethin' that you gotta do

But does it matter if we break a rule or two

Get up, break out, don't be the odd one out

Livin' on the edge, I'm a tryin' to keep a level head

Every morning it's a bummer gettin' out of bed

Same old story does a nothin' ever ever change

Yeah, they lock me up and then they let me out again

Get up, break out, don't be the odd one out

Come on, it's alright, we're hot tonight

You better run, run riot

You gotta run, run riot

You know the time has come

Run, run riot, I mean everyone

Run, yeah, run riot

Oh, gotta run riot babe

Goin' through the motions desperation guaranteed

Whoa, get f-f-frustrated easily

Pedal to the metal senses working overtime

Hey, gonna fight to the finish baby

Draw the line

Get up, break out, don't be the odd one out

C'mon, it's alright we're hot tonight

Run, run riot

You gotta run, run riot

You know the time has come

Run, run riot, I mean everyone

Run, yeah, run riot

Speak to me

They lock me up, they let me out but I'm up and runnin'

I scream and shout

Get up, break out, don't be the odd one out

Come on, it's alright we're hot tonight

You better run, run riot

You gotta run, run riot

You know the time has come

Run, run riot, come on, run with me

Run, run riot

Run, run riot

I'll take you from your misery

Come on, stick with me
