I don't wanna fall in love

But it's been taken outta my hands

And right now I realize

I don't wanna say goodbye

I miss you more than words can say

They never turn out right, but here goes anyway

Everyday I miss your touch

Never thought it would mean so much

All the words I could've said got me reeling torn to shreds

Every road I go is nowhere

But I know you're out there somewhere

These voices in my head got me feeling torn to shreds

I can't help the way I feel

That something's got a hold of my heart

It hurts but I can't let go

Yeah, I just wanna let you know

I need you more than words can say

They never turn out right, but here goes anyway

Everyday I miss your touch

Never thought it would mean so much

All the words I could've said got me reeling torn to
shreds

Every road I go is nowhere

But I know you're out there somewhere

These voices in my head got me feeling torn to shreds

If I ever get myself together

And it takes whatever it takes

To get myself back to you

Everyday I miss your touch

Never thought it would mean so much

All the words I could've said got me reeling torn to
shreds

Every road I go is nowhere

But I know you're out there somewhere

These voices in my head got me feeling torn to shreds
