The sun is shining brightly from the sky
And you look out of the window and wish you could fly
Get out of school come on and put on your jeans
Leave your homework at home
Go where the action begins
Skateboard ooh ah ah
City surfin' ah ah
Skateboard ooh ah ah
Skateboard ooh ah ah
It's a crazy race
Skateboard ooh ah ah
Sidewalk ridin' ah ah
Skateboard ooh ah ah
On a concrete race
Let your hair fly in the afternoon breeze
And see the motor-bike freeks
Goin' down on their knees
Go into the curve and roll as fast as you can
Straight your arms and think 'up like an aeroplane'

Skateboard ooh ah ah

When the evening sun is going down
Big city lights look like the sea
Close your eyes and hear the surfin' sound
And sail away with me
Roadrunner Dan
he's a skateboard fan
With his plastic suit he's like a rocket man
Kate and her friends go rollin' hand in hand
On an ironing board around the hamburger stand
Skateboard ooh ah ah
