I'm standing in the shadows, all alone
Memories running through my heart and soul
This is the time when I should leave or stay
The future and the past slips away
Every night I wake up and hear your voice
I reach out for you but you're not there
I close my eyes and I see you before me
Now I know it's time for me to leave

Spread my wings and fly
Fly so high
Above all I used to be
Now I'm alone but I'm free
Spread my wings and fly
Over mountains so high
And the wind it's carrying me
Where I want to be

It's hard to find a reason, it's hard to understand
Why you've been pulled away far to neverland
Still I hear your VOICE calling my name
And I realize my life will never be the same

Spread my wings and fly
Fly so high
Now I'm alone but I'm free
Spread my wings and fly
Over mountains so high
And the wind it's carrying me
Where I want to be
