Darkness, fragments of unforgotten souls
Beauty, as majestic grimness
Grief, like forever thawing frost
Wrath, mighty as the mountains where moonlight shine

I invoke thou great dominion, thou the usurper of the domain
Thou imperial, tragedy of death, bring malice towards humanity
Thou powers of the night bring hatred towards life
And damnify the uplightened sky

Lord of darkness I require the solace of the shades and the dark of the night
Sunshine's my destroyer but all this'll change
Tonight sun sets forever, there shall never be another dawn
Hear me thou powers of the night, I offer With righteous blood and with fire, great dominion let light
Forever be extinct, the usurper of the domain
Let the time of grievous darkness begin

Darkness, fragments of unforgotten souls
Beauty, as majestic grimness
Grief, like forever thawing frost
Wrath, mighty as the mountains where moonlight shine

Thou great dominion I invoke Tragedy of death I seek Precious mess... in black

Hail unto thee... who travels over the heavens... in black
