Subvert the will of millions
In dread and potent name
For faceless fools forges
The enigma of their fall
As hierarchy of selves
Whose blindness is enlightenment
As foulness you shall know them
Struck pale with fear

Devourer of the flesh of man
Haunter of hideous lair
Destroyer of worlds

A discourse of apparitions
Versed in the art of shudden

Subvert the will of millions
In dread and potent name
For faceless fools forges
The enigma of their fall
As hierarchy of selves
Whose blindness is enlightenment
As foulness you shall know them
Struck pale with fear

Devourer of the flesh of man
Haunter of hideous lair
Destroyer of worlds

As fugitive slaves are branded
Ravenously reap great ruin
Earth's last moaning breath
Lies in the throes of death

A discourse of apparitions
The world shall be undone!
