Cant believe/that the heart of my world/got me on my knees/ prayin' my eyes are lyin to me/ i built a whole new life around you/ and in an instant we were through/as our future disappears/ falling like tears/ are the dreams of a love/ i thought we shared and

Chorus

It's not fair/ i was true to you/ i finally settle down/ then you gone turn around/ and betray the trust i had in you/ it's not fair/ after all i treated you/respectable, with care/ said that you'd be there/ now who am i to turn to Man, I trusted you/ and this what I get in return/ you was like a brother to me/ but now is see you was just waitin your turn/ when i'd be out at work y'all was doin dirt/ stealin my heart away/shared everything with you/ all i was goin through/ now dark skies and tearful eyes/ are here to stay

Chorus

After all i sacrificed/ for my seed, said you'd give life/with everything i am wanted for you/ to be happy, and now slowly/ the life of love you breathed into my heart/ is slipping away, dying today, if only/never thought i'd live to see/ disrespected me, how could it be/ throwin it away so easily.
