Looking back on the road behind,
I've been in the dark,
I've been blind.
Turning left,
when I should have gone right,
oh but I can't go back,
I can't rewind.

While the sky is turning,
you're the darkest shade of blue,
I think of what it's gonna take to get close to you.

It's hard to face
another day
And I just won't forgive myself
if I let this slip away.
I know it now,
I know it's true,
only your love will do.

If my regrets
could reach your heart
I'd rather die
then to be apart.
What is next only time will tell
but to do without your love is way to hard.
And every other girl that I've been talking to,
makes me realize how much I'm missing you.

It's hard to face
another day.
And I just won't forgive myself,
if I let this slip away.
I know it now,
I know it's true
Only your love will do

(Only your love, only your love)

I'll be a fool
if I let this slip away

(Only your love)

Yeah. (Only your love)
Only your love will do.
And while the sky is turning
you're the darkest shade of blue.
I think of what is gonna take to get back to you.

(Only your love)
Yeah
(Only your love)
I'll be a fool if I let this slip away
(Only your love)
Yeah (Only your love)

Only your love will do
Only your love will do ohoho
Only your love will do
